British Strengthen Their New Positions

Portion of Hindenburg Line is Now Held Safely; Bombing Raids Carried by British Aeroplanes

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
LONDON, May 4.—"The number of German prisoners captured in yesterday's operations exceeds 900, including 28 officers," said the War Office communication issued this evening.
"During the day our troops strengthened their positions in the sector of the Hindenburg line captured yesterday, and have progressed eastward along the enemy's trenches, killing many Germans and taking several prisoners.
"A number of successful bombing raids were carried out by our aeroplanes yesterday, resulting in severe fighting in the air. Three hostile machines were brought down by our aeroplanes and five others were driven down out of control. Two other German machines were shot down by the fire from the ground, and another was compelled to land beyond our lines. (Two of our aeroplanes are missing.)"

COUNTER ATTACKS SUCCESSFUL ONLY IN DISTRICT OF CHERISY

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN FRANCE, May 4. (Evening), via London.—Infantry attacks and counter-attacks having subsided for the time being, there came from the battlefield tonight only the dull roar of the never-ending artillery duels. There was still fighting all through last night and early today as the Germans threw heavy reserves into counter-attacks which cost them dearly. These counter-attacks succeeded only in the neighborhood of Cherisy where the British troops fell back from the more advanced post occupied early yesterday.
Clearing Out Pockets
The new British line on the war maps has the appearance of a jigsaw puzzle and really reflects the severity of the fighting which has surged back and forth during the last 48 hours. There are various "pockets" in the front that remain to be cleared out and the artillery today was paying particular attention to them. The guns also make life very unpleasant for the German inhabitants of Oppy Wood.
The Canadians resisted all attempts to drive them from their newly-won position at Fresnoy, and further south the British troops which penetrated another sector of the Hindenburg line were holding tight to their gains. New German units constantly are being identified among the prisoners taken.
Can Now Look Over Douai Plain
Meanwhile the German artillery is making targets of the villages wrested from the Germans in the past two weeks. Gavrelle, Baillieux, Arieux, Fresnoy and Monchy are being ground to powder by the thousands of high explosive shells in accordance with the German custom of "strafing" every place from which they are driven. The scene of the fighting has become more visible since the British took so much high ground during the first phase of the battle of Arras. It is possible now to look far over the Douai Plain. From the Vimy Ridge and the heights about Monchy the war spreads out below in a great panoramic picture.

CANADIANS HOLD THEIR LINE DESPITE COUNTER ATTACKS

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
CANADIAN HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, May 4. (By the Canadian Overseas correspondent).—Separate counter attacks have been made by the German infantry on our new positions to the north and south of Fresnoy, but have failed to shake our line. This morning's reports show the conditions to be again normal, with our heavy artillery preparing the way for the British and Canadian infantry by "taking on" the heavy guns of the enemy in the rear of his lines.
It must be remembered that the enemy in the region over which our further advance must be made, has no definite trench system, such as that captured during the past week, until the "Drocourt" line is reached, which is about three miles to the west of Douai. For four miles to the east of

ATTACKS REPULSED SAYS BERLIN REPORT

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
BERLIN, May 4.—The war office communication issued this evening says:
"On the Arras front, British attacks on both sides of Bullecourt and strong attacks by the French on the Aisne front, between Berry-au-Bac and Brimont were repulsed.
Berlin, in an earlier report, admitted the fall of Fresnoy, which was taken by the Canadians."

CHINA'S ENTRY INTO WAR IS INEVITABLE

President Li Yuan Chang and Senate Opposed—House of Representatives Favors
(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
PEKING, May 4. (Passed by censor after deletion).—The entry of China into the war at an early date seems inevitable.
President Li Yuan Chang and the Senate are opposed to such a step, but the House of Representatives, the Premier and the conference of military governors are urging war.
A dissolution of Parliament is threatened if Parliament fails to declare a state of hostility. Owing to the great power exercised by the military the Senate probably will yield to the war party.
Hsu Shih Ying, Minister of Communications, has resigned.

SUBSCRIPTIONS ARE COMING IN RAPIDLY

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
NEW YORK, May 4.—Total subscription in New York to the $2,000,000 loan for the Allies amounted thus far to between $250,000,000 and $300,000,000. It was estimated in banking circles today. It was predicted that after Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo has completed the details for the flotation of the loan additional subscriptions here will bring the total to $1,000,000,000.

Story Told in Vancouver Inquiry Is Contradicted by One of Principals
(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
VANCOUVER, May 4.—After a sitting lasting a little over one hour this morning the commission on inquiry in the person of Mr. Justice Gregory, appointed to probe the charge of J. S. Cowper that Hon. M. A. MacDonald, attorney-general, had received $15,000 from the Canadian Northern Railway for election purposes, was adjourned until Wednesday next, owing to the fact that Dr. Robert MacKenzie was absent. Mr. E. M. N. Wood, counsel for Cowper, declared that he was unable to go on with his case in his absence.

AMERICANS BRING IN MUCH WEALTH

FRENCH TROOPS TAKE CRAONNE AND HUN LINE

New Offensive Along Aisne Brings More Success to Allies' Arms
(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
PARIS, May 4.—Northwest of Rheims French troops have taken the first German line on a front of about two and a half miles, capturing 600 prisoners in the operation. On the eastern end of the Vaucelles Plateau, the statement from the war office this evening adds, the village of Craonne has been captured by the French. More than 150 prisoners, as well as several points of support east and north of Craonne, also fell into the hands of General Nivelle's forces.

PATROLS SHOWED GREATEST HEROISM

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
PARIS, May 4.—A Marcellin despatch to the Matin says that the patrol ships which went to the rescue of the torpedoed transport Arcadian showed great heroism and determination in saving victims of the submarine. Both officers and men leaped overboard and held up drowning soldiers. One patrol saved 236 men in an hour and a half.

Russian Ministers Are Cheered by Populace At Midnight Meeting

Antagonism of Rank and File of Populace Appears To Be Abating After Their Demonstration in Which They Demanded Resignation of Foreign Minister Milukoff—Most of Troops Declare That They Will Support Temporary Government
*****
DELEGATES ACCEPT GOVT. EXPLANATION
*****
PETROGRAD, via London, May 5, 5:52 a.m.—The Council of Workmen and Soldiers delegates has accepted the government's explanation of its May 4 day note by a vote of 34 to 19, and has decided that the incident is closed. The anti-government street demonstration was completely swamped by a gigantic pro-government demonstration on Friday evening. There were some clashes but no serious incidents.
*****
(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
PETROGRAD, May 4, via London, May 5.—Following an all night joint secret session of the ministers of the government and the council of the workmen and soldiers' deputies in the Marinsky Palace, the council announced today that another mass meeting would be held tonight at which the result of the conference would be announced to their constituents. ### THEY ASK WHERE POTATOES ARE Sherbrooke Merchants Can Find No Stock in Alberta, N. B. or P. E. I.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
OTTAWA, May 4.—N. McKinnis, of North Cape Breton, brought to the attention of the minister of agriculture a telegram which had been sent by 20 merchants of Sherbrooke, which said that they had not the statement of the minister that there had been a surplus of potatoes in Alberta, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, that they had made inquiries and that they could discover no stock at all. They asked where the surplus potatoes could be got.

DEBATING ON FREE WHEAT AMENDMENT

When This Is Disposed of More Amendments To Be Moved
*****
STATEMENT MADE ON WHEAT ADVANCE
*****
Sir Thomas White Says British Buying Is Cause
(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
OTTAWA, May 4.—Parliament put in a quiet day. The budget debate was proceeded with in the afternoon sitting and the debate adjourned until next week. Hope of reaching a division on the free wheat amendment was abandoned early in the day and it will come some time next week. It is understood that the opposition will move amendments so that there is likely to be several days more discussion before consideration of fiscal matters is concluded.

Statement on Wheat Situation

An important statement relative to the advances in the prices of wheat and flour in the Winnipeg grain exchange was made when the house met by Sir Thomas White, acting prime minister. Sir Thomas, after referring to the debate in the house yesterday on Mr. Kyle's motion to adjourn to consider an increased price, said: "I learned this morning from dependable financial sources that the corner which has occurred on the Winnipeg market has been brought about by the unusually large buying of the British wheat commission, which has been buying in large quantities." Sir Thomas continued that elevators and other vendors in connection with legitimate business operations who have been selling wheat for May delivery have found themselves unable to fill their contracts with contracts grades of wheat. The result has been that prices have been driven up by their attempts to secure wheat of contract grades for delivery. Sir Thomas added that he had suggested as a solution of the difficulty that the British wheat commission should accept to the extent vendors are unable to deliver, wheat of lower grades, having regard to its commercial value for milling purposes.

THE MINISTER SAID THAT HE HAD YESTERDAY CABLED TO SIR GEORGE PERLEY TO TAKE UP THE QUESTION WITH THE WHEAT COMMISSION IN LONDON. HE HAD CABLED HIM AGAIN TODAY. SIR THOMAS CONCLUDED HIS STATEMENT WITH THE REMARKS THAT IF RELIEF IS NOT AFFORDED THE GOVERNMENT WILL HAVE TO CONSIDER WHETHER FURTHER ACTION MAY BE NECESSARY.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER ASKED THE MINISTER IF HE HAD ORDERED TO HIM THAT SO LONG AS THE WHEAT CONTRACT IS BUYING THERE IS ALWAYS LIKELY TO BE A CORNER TO HOLD THE COMMISSION UP. SIR THOMAS REPLIED THAT IT HAD BEEN KNOWN FOR A LONG TIME THAT THE COMMISSION HAD BEEN PURCHASING WHEAT.

MANY LOOKING TO THE WEST

Western Canada Is Mecca of Many Who Want to Get on Land
(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
SASKATOON, May 4.—The organized excursion of farm boys from the University of Illinois to Saskatoon has given this province and western Canada such publicity in the United States that letters are flooding Saskatoon from those who for one reason or other are anxious to return to the farm and have concluded that western Canada is the last great west to go to. More college excursions to this district are likely. Questions asked are whether those who come are liable to conscription and whether American citizenship must be given up to take a homestead. A third question is whether Canada will deport Americans if the United States calls for their conscription. Despite these falsehoods circulated in the United States, Canada appears to be the land that is being looked to by the man who is seeking the farm as the means of his existence.

PETITION VOICES CONFIDENCE BUT DISPUTE STILL UNSETTLED

T. P. Malone Points Out That Only Fifty-one Families Are Represented on the List, While Over Two Hundred Are Concerned—Chairman Picard Asks Why There is no Counter Petition, if Statement is Correct.

Although a petition, expressing confidence in the administration of the Separate schools of the city, was presented to the Separate school board on Thursday night, the matters in dispute have apparently not yet been satisfactorily adjusted.

The petition was presented by the heads of 51 south side families, but T. P. Malone pointed out that there are two hundred separate school families on the south side, and he was also informed that a number of prominent ratepayers had refused to sign.

The text of the petition was as follows:

"The undersigned Separate School supporters, resident in South Edmonton, have learned through the Edmonton press that what is alleged as being a delegation of Separate School supporters appeared before the Separate School Board at its last meeting and made certain objections with regard to the administration of the local Separate Schools, and with regard to the nuns in connection therewith.

"We do not know whether or not the representations of the said alleged delegation were correctly reported, or if the foregoing correctly sets forth the objections made, but wish to state as follows:

"That the said alleged delegation was not, in our opinion, at all representative of the Separate School supporters of the Edmonton School District.

"That we take this means of expressing our entire confidence in the Edmonton Separate School Board, and our entire approval and appreciation of their administration of the schools under their charge.

"With regard to the schools of which we have knowledge, and in which we are more directly interested, namely, the Sixth Avenue and St. Anthony schools, on the South Side, and the High School on the North Side, we wish to express most emphatically our approval of the manner in which these schools are conducted and our very high appreciation of the sisters in charge thereof or associated therewith, and our high appreciation of and gratitude for the services rendered by them in connection with these schools.

"That we earnestly desire the sisters to continue in association with the said schools and with Separate schools generally in the said school district, which association we consider of the greatest importance, benefit and advantage to the children attending Separate schools."

The chairman, J. H. Picard, asked Mr. Malone why he did not bring forward a counter-petition, but Mr. Malone said he had no faith in that kind of thing.

Mr. Malone went on to say that the petition did not change his attitude one iota, and he was still prepared to make a stand for greater efficiency, his main contention being that in certain specific cases the Sisters and primary teachers did not come up to the required standard.

BRICK PLANT TO START WORK THIS MONTH

Acme Brick Co. Only One In Edmonton Operating Continuously Since War Began

The large plant of the Acme Brick Company, located at Cannell, about five miles northwest of Edmonton, will commence operation about the first of this month. This is the only brick plant in Edmonton which has operated continuously since the outbreak of war during the season.

A large amount of money has been expended on alterations at the plant, with a view to improving both the quantity and quality of the brick. It is the intention of the management to manufacture between five and six million bricks during the summer months and there is every indication of a good demand in the territory supplied by the company.

The Acme Brick Company own the largest common brick plant west of Winnipeg and perhaps the largest in Canada devoted entirely to the manufacture of common and clay building brick. The clay is excavated and mixed automatically by a special shovel built expressly for their yard and which has a capacity of 600 cubic yards of brick clay per day. The clay is hauled up an inclined railway into the hoppers and fed into the brick machines, two of which are installed, each having a capacity of 100,000 bricks per day. Either one of these machines or both can be operated as may be desired.

The bricks are fired in a tunnel, which is a patent dryer, having 28 tunnels in two decks, the green brick being raised on to the upper deck by means of power elevators and after drying are burned in a permanent kiln, of which nine have already been installed and provisions made for a larger number of kilns to be installed in the future as the business demands.

The market for Edmonton-made brick is a very extensive one, the Acme Brick Company shipping their product to all points in Northern Alberta and Saskatchewan, the furthest point being 507 miles from their plant.

Many of the school districts erecting schools during the coming year are considering the erection of brick buildings in place of frame schools, realizing that, while first cost is of considerable importance, it is not the only thing that has to be considered and it is admitted that brick buildings live longer and cost considerably less for upkeep than frame buildings and the same facts apply to farm and country residences. During the recent farmers' convention in this city, many inquiries were made by the visitors in this connection, and there is no doubt but that the future will see a much better class of construction throughout the provinces in the smaller towns and the country districts.

VETERANS PAY TRIBUTE TO DEAD COMRADE

Turn Out To Attend Funeral of Private C. H. Annand at Hospital

The members of the Canadian Returned Veterans' association turned out 70 strong to do honor to the late Pte. C. H. Annand, who died on Thursday at the Strathcona military hospital. There was no service and no military ceremony, on account of the short notice given. The veterans, under the command of Capt. Pinder, with President Bailey and Secretary Reinhardt, marched from their headquarters to Dunham's undertaking rooms and escorted the body to the C. P. R. station. It was sent to Pte. Annand's home at Milford station, near Seattle, where it will be laid in the family burial lot.

His brother, S. A. Annand, and his sister, came up from Calgary, to take charge of the arrangements. His sister will accompany the body east. The Edmonton Veterans' association notified the Halifax association and Pte. Annand will be accorded a funeral with full military honors.

Pte. Annand enlisted in 1914 in the 10th old battalion and was wounded in September, 1915, near Glenora, Ont. A German high explosive shell burst close to him inflicting severe injuries and shock. He was for seven months at the front and lay for eight months in hospital in England. He returned to Canada, April 9th, 1916, as a hospital attendant, and was at the Ogdenville convalescent home, near Calgary, up to Monday of last week, when he was transferred to the Strathcona hospital.

NEW ASSOCIATION ADOPTS PLATFORM

Endorses Principles Which Are Laid Down By Alberta Non-Partisan League

A meeting of the East Edmonton Democratic Association was held last night in the Rex Theatre, at which the platform of the Non-Partisan League of Canada, Alberta branch, was endorsed. This platform calls for the overthrow of party politics, the abolition of the patronage system, further extension of direct legislation and government ownership and control of every feasible public utility. The association also endorsed the platform of the Labor Representative League which advocates, among other things, a direct tax on all incomes over $2,000; a graduated inheritance tax on estates and on the profits of corporations; franchise extension to every British subject; arrangements for any citizen to vote wherever he may be on election day; the abolition of property qualification for civic offices; the abolition of election districts; proportional representation; a great extension of public ownership and many new regulations of workers and their pay.

PRICE OF CATTLE STEADILY RISING;
HOGS HOLD STRONG

Lucky is the man who has live stock today for the price of cattle has made another jump and the price of hogs is at the record notch. A few years ago ranchers used to sell their fat steers at Edmonton for about a third of what is now offered at the Edmonton Stock Yards for extra choice fat stock. At Friday quotations a steer well finished for a choice beef would at a weight of 1,300 lbs. bring $130 in cash; a veal calf weighing 240 lbs. would bring $28.50; and stocker calves almost a year old would bring from $30 to $45 per head. There is an old time proverb that "cattle are cash," the revised version will soon be "gold coin cattle."

FIVE DENTISTRY

Duncan, president, and I. B. Howatt, secretary, ask for a large attendance of electors, and especially of women electors.

DEPARTING BOYS AND RETURNING VETERANS GUESTS AT BANQUET

Enjoyable Event Takes Place Last Night at South Side Restaurant, When Number of Young Men Are Entertained by Members of Metropolitan Church and Friends

A most enjoyable luncheon was given in honor of Lieut. S. R. Hosford, Pte. Arthur Hosford, and Pte. Charles Richards, who are proceeding overseas shortly, and of Jte. Jack Dawson, late of the 3rd mounted rifles, now convalescent, and Pte. Johnson, late of the Imperial forces, who have returned, at the Empire Cafe, on the South Side last night. The affair was literally to speed the parting and to welcome the coming of the veterans, arranged by members of Metropolitan Methodist church and friends of the soldiers who were honored and, although decidedly impromptu in its nature, was a tremendous success from every point of view. It will long be remembered by the participants.

Eighty-two guests in all sat down to a fine five-course banquet which was served in admirable style by the Empire cafe management. Rev. E. Valton, pastor of Metropolitan church, P.P., proposed the toast to "Our boys who have done their bit," which was spoken to by Ptes. Johnson and Dawson.

The toast to "Ye Old Metropolitan," was proposed by Lieut. Hosford, who was formerly teacher of the "Swastika" class in the Sunday school and a member of the quarterly official board of the church. It was responded to with great eloquence and feeling by Mr. Tilton.

The gathering broke up with the singing of the fine old hymn, "Blest be the tie that binds."

MEN ARE TAKING KEEN INTEREST IN AMBULANCE WORK

Is a Matter of Gratification to All Concerned—Look Forward to Outdoor Exercise

The ambulance corps in connection with the Reserve Militia had a fine line-up of men at Wednesday's drill in the City Market hall, first street. It is very encouraging for all concerned to see a body of men so fully interested in an endeavor to maintain efficiency in the work they have taken up. Bandaging exercises occupied the greater part of the evening, under the direction of Acting Sergeant S. C. H. Turner. The men are looking forward to some out-of-door stretcher drill next Wednesday, if the weather is fit. The R. M. Ambulance corps is open to enroll men desirous of taking up First Aid and Ambulance work. The present time is most opportune for men wishing to acquire knowledge of First Aid to the injured, as it is the purpose of this branch of the Reserve Militia to keep the men in touch all the time with the rudimentary stages of ambulance work, with a view to following up some more advanced work in the early fall. Men wishing to join should attend at 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening and report to the R. M. Ambulance secretary.

AUTO COLLIDES WITH A WAGON

Motor Car Got Worst of Accident—Street Car Strikes Motor Truck

An automobile owned by the National Drug Company and driven by S. A. Connell, of 549 114th street, a traveller for the company, while running east on Jasper avenue, about 6:30 o'clock yesterday evening, near 118th street, collided with a rig owned by The Lindsay Walker Co., Ltd., bill posters, which was standing at the curb. The rig, which was in charge of Charles P. D. Salisbury and J. Millar, was not damaged to any extent, but the light motor car looked as though someone had stepped on it.

A motor truck loaded with goods, going north on 163rd street at 5:30 yesterday afternoon, stalled on the tracks while crossing Jasper avenue and a street car going west rammed it head on. The driver of the truck was thrown from his seat and the car fender was smashed. The noise of the collision could be heard a block and the passengers on the street car, mostly women, swarmed off in wild terror. Fortunately nobody was hurt in the least.

There was a good attendance at the meeting of the Beaver House Chapter which met at the home of Miss Macdonald on Friday afternoon. The resolutions of the agenda of the Local Council of Women were discussed and the chapter was so much in favor of and endorsed the work of the Y. W. C. A. that it resolved itself for $50.00 towards the building fund.

Arrangements were made for the celebration of Empire Day by the

Catarrhal Deafness May Be Overcome

A Simple, Safe and Reliable Way That Calls For No Ugly Trum-pets, Phones or Other Instruments

To be deaf is very annoying and embarrassing. People who are deaf are generally almost entirely cut off from the world. Yet many deaf people carry around instruments that call attention to their infirmity. Therefore people who are hard of hearing, who suffer from head noises, or who are actually deaf from catarrhal trouble, will be glad to know of a simple recipe that can be easily made up at home from a few cents' cost that is really quite efficient in relieving the disagreeable deafness and head noises caused by catarrh.

From any drug store get one ounce of Permut (double strength) about the worth. Take this home and put it into a simple syrup made of 24 parts of hot water and four ounces of ordinary granulated sugar. Take a tablespoonful four times a day. This treatment should be continued until the inflammation in the middle ear that a catarrhal condition would be likely to cause and with the inflammation gone the distressing head noises, headaches, cloudy thinking and that dull feeling in the ears should gradually disappear. Anyone who suffers from catarrh, catarrhal deafness or head noises should give this a trial. It is pleasant to take and is quite inexpensive.

This chapter has always undertaken the celebration of Empire Day by the public schools and a great deal of thought and time is devoted to the carrying out of the work. Prizes for essays are given each year to the eighth grade and this year the subject is "Premier Lloyd George." There is also the Sarah Maxwell prize for the best essay on heroism. The buying committee had their report to make as well as the prizes for approval, and with the regular routine business the afternoon was a busy one for the members.

Mrs. Clyde Macdonald entertained the younger set for her daughter Friday evening, after the reception of the afternoon. The guests included Miss Verna Atkins, Miss Mary Grant, Miss Gladys Watson, Miss Dolly McKay, Miss Ena Sutherland, Miss Hay-Roe, Miss Mae Mills, Miss Helen Neff, Miss Charlotte Burbeck, Miss Hine Campbell, Miss Margaret Campbell, Miss Annie Hyde, Miss Florence McClung, Miss Kathleen Graydon, Messrs. GOD SAVE THE KING

During the four months ending April 30th, Red Cross Circle 178 of the First Presbyterian church have made the following: 26 dressing gowns, 65 suits of pajamas, 25 bed jackets, 93 handkerchiefs, 134 school uniforms, 528 T. bandages, 144 pillow cases, 108 towels, 500 comfort bags, 83 pairs of socks. In addition to the above work it has contributed one web of gauze and $30.00 in cash, the proceeds of Ada L. Ward's lecture. The convenor, Mrs. J. B. Macdonald is always pleased to welcome new members to the circle.

A very successful card social was held Thursday by ladies of St. Francis Xavier Parish in the auditorium of the Jesuit college. Entrance and "500" were played. The ladies first prize, a silk parasol, donated by Mr. Chatain, was won by Mrs. M. J. Fitzgerald; second prize, a pair of kid gloves, donated by Father Lebel, was won by Madame Andette; consolation prize, a box of chocolates, donated by Mr. Joseph Cassidy, went to Madame Dussault. The first prize, a $5.00 gold piece, donated by Jackson Bros., was won by Mr. J. W. Hefferman; second prize, a box of cigars, donated by the Dominion Cigar Stores, was won by Mr. C. David; consolation prize, a case pipe, donated by Father Lebel, went to Mr. Banville. A musical program, which was much enjoyed by all was fittingly rendered by the students of the college, accompanied by their instructor, Father Lessard. Lunches were served by Father Lebel of the parish and a pleasant evening was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.

The lecture hall of the First Presbyterian church was filled with a large and interested audience last night, it being the occasion of a recital given by the pupils of Wilbur G. Grant and W. J. Hendra, of Alberta College North. The program contained some 17 items, vocal and instrumental, alternating, and although all were not up to the same standard, yet each could be appreciated on its merits, and the recital served to enhance the reputations of these two gentlemen, who already occupy a prominent position in the local musical world as instructors of no mean order.

Again, it was an illustration of the musical talent that can be found in the city, not dormant, but which is being cultivated and brought into the light. It means that even if none of the pupils whose contributions to the program were so greatly appreciated, ever reaches the height of a great artist, yet they will have increased the pleasure of the world by the gift they have made of their undoubted gifts.

Appended is the program:
Miss Muriel Brown, "Solweig's Song," Grieg; Miss Marion Flood, "Valse Lente," Steubling; Miss J. Thompson, "The Beggar Maid," Barber; Miss Viola Walker, "Melodie," Paderewski; Miss Flora Scott, "Chide Oh, Chide Me," Mozart (Don Giovanni); Miss Helen McGregor, "Waltz," Chopin; Miss J. Minor, "Chopin," Chopin; Miss "Oh," "Oh," German (Valse obligato); Miss Lillian Huff, "Valse Aerienne," Lask; Mrs. M. B. Clifton, "The Rose of Life," Slater; Miss Louise Meyer, "Fantasia Impromptu," Chopin; Miss Laura Cline, "In Summer," Grieg; Miss J. Thompson, "Coele," (a) "Le Cygne," Saint-Saens; (b) "Mazurka No. 4," Godard; Miss Myrtle Sullivan, "Orpheus and His Lute," Sullivan; Miss Ethel Brownridge, "Waltz in E Major," Mozart; Miss Vera Corne, "Air de Ballet in G," Chaminade; Miss Bessie Pickle, "The House of the Future" (from "Herodias," 1884) Massenet.

"Very nice," "Awfully good," "Wonderful," "Sweet," "Didn't they do well," "Wasn't it fine," and "Wasn't the play splendid," were only a few of the remarks made as the satisfied audience filed out of the concert hall in Galt. The University on Friday night after the excellent dramatic entertainment given by the V.W.C.A. Dramatic club and very ably assisted by the members of Mrs. Pimble's various folk dancing classes. It would be very hard indeed to say that one number was better than another and there were thirteen of the program. The Children's polka, Danish Folk dance, Swedish Folk dance were done beautifully, while the Russian dance by Dorothy Cameron, Gertrude Hyndman, Ruth Short and Irene Capstick was very fine. The Oriental Worship drill was most pleasing, and the sword dance, Highland Fling and Artistic dance in Scotch costume brought great applause for the performers. Aileen White and Margery Chauvin in the "Irish Jig" in costume were heartily cheered. But the prettiest and dearest number ever seen in Edmonton in this line of work was the Colonial Minuet which was nothing short of marvelous in the execution by these young dancers. Their costumes were beautiful and the blending of color delightful. And the play was most enjoyable. It was a comedy of course and thoroughly entertaining. The characters were well taken and the story well interpreted. If there was any fault to be found it was that the players did not speak loud enough, but this is a common fault with all amateurs and therefore can be overlooked. The title of the play and the cast is as follows: "The Kieptomaniac," a comedy in one act, by Margaret Cameron. Mrs. John Burton (Peggy), Miss Mabel Wilson; Mrs. Valerie Chase Armby (a young widow), Miss Muriel Palmer; Mrs. Charles Dover (Mabel's bride), Miss Agathe Devereaux; Mrs. Preston Ashley (Bertha), Mrs. A. A. Pinckney; Miss Freda Dixon, Miss Ethel Bottomley; Miss Evelyn Ryan (a journalist), Miss Myrtle Merrill; Katie (Mrs. Burton's maid), Miss Annie McNabb. Scene—Mrs. Burton's boudoir.

With the weather just perfect and all things favorable the reception held by Dr. and Mrs. Clyde Macdonald for their daughter, who made her debut to Edmonton society on Friday afternoon was one of the gayest and brightest affairs since the beginning of the war and was very much enjoyed by one and all. The Macdonald home on Wadhurst Road was a picture and the day so warm that the guests wandered out to the veranda, which was arranged so cooily, and chatted in the sunshine or admired the charming view of the ravine which is beginning to show the spring green, looked for so long. The drawing room was bright with rose shade curtains and many blooming geraniums. Mrs. Macdonald received her guests in a modish toilette of black Brussels net over black taffeta empire effect and heavily trimmed with an oriental beaded design on the short bodice from which hung ropes of jet. A corsage bouquet of crimson roses completed the costume. Miss Macdonald was girlishly gowned in white net, empire effect, with a deep frill of exquisite shadow lace, gold braid inset in the skirt above the knee, also used on the bodice with good effect. A corsage bouquet of roses and ferns made the right finishing touch. The tea room was a perfect bower of beauty. The tea table glittered with silver, cut glass and dainty china. A mass of rose bloom was the artistic centerpiece and from 3 to 5 Mrs. R. James Ramsey poured tea. Mrs. W. T. Henry poured coffee, and Mrs. W. B. Poucher cut the ices. Mrs. Angus Grant poured tea from 5 to 7 and Mrs. McLachlan the coffee, while Mrs. Don Grant cut the ices. The assistants were Mrs. Lundy, Mrs. A. H. Wood, Mrs. Craig, Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Chas. Reed, Mrs. Hay-Roe, Miss Gladys McIntyre, Miss Marjorie Poucher, Miss Mary Grant, Mrs. McLan-

Alex. Taylor Pupils Give Fine Concert

In the presence of an audience which taxed the capacity of the school assembly hall, among whom were representatives of both city and provincial school authorities, the girls and boys of the Alex. Taylor Public school gave an excellent patriotic entertainment last evening which netted $100 for the fund. Each room in the school contributed one or more numbers to the program.

Among the primary grade numbers of much merit was a vocal duet sung by little Doris Richardson and Raymond Moore of Mrs. Hyers' room. This room also presented a delightful little folk dance for the little tots, a boys chorus from Miss Raymond's room, entitled "Good Luck to the Boys of the Allies," a winning number. Elizabeth Thiroux recited very sweetly "Little Boy Blue." Miss Howard's primary room offered a motion song in which participated Lily Pankum, Alfred Caldwell, Robert Coleman, Mabel East, Katherine Jenn, Marjorie Kells, Violet Townsend, Leslie Plotzel, Audrey Powell, Katherine Reynolds, Willie Rowley, Jordan Skinner, Grace Bullock, Harold Falkenberg, Eva Shogerman, Mona Iles, Hazel Grais, Jessie Craig, Donald Richardson, Jim Jos, Elmo Johnson, Thomas Freeman and Raymond Moore. Robinson's call contributed some pleasing numbers of song and story, this being grade three. Miss O'Brien's

The Women's Exchange

TODAY'S INQUIRIES.

1. How can white silk blouses be prevented from yellowing?
2. Some garments should not be starched, yet need a certain body given to them which would be lacking if nothing were used. What is the best way to do this?
3. How can rugs be prevented from slipping on a polished floor?

ANSWERS TO YESTERDAY'S INQUIRIES.

1. To make absorbent cotton, boil the best quality of cotton with a five per cent solution of caustic soda or potash for one-half hour. Wash thoroughly, press out all water as much as possible and immerse in a five per cent solution of chloride of lime (bleaching powder) for fifteen or twenty minutes; wash with a little water; then with water acidulated with hydrochloric acid, then with water. Boil once more for fifteen minutes with caustic soda solution, wash again with acidulated and plain water.
2. A waterproof paint may be made by dissolving in two quarts of water, one pound of brown soap and then adding six quarts of boiled oil and an ounce of varnish. After removing them from the fire add two quarts of turpentine and the color with which it is desired to mix it. Strain well and thin with turpentine.

3. A good sewing machine oil consists of three parts olive oil, two parts almond oil and one part rapeseed oil treated with alcohol. This mixed lubricant is fairly fluid and admirably suited for fine sewing machine parts.

4. At a miscellaneous shower for a bride the gifts are not confined to one particular variety, as in a linen or silk-stocking shower, but anything which may be of use to the bride may be given.

5. A bride may carry a white leather or prayer book instead of the usual bouquet if she prefers to do so.

6. It is the duty of the maid of honor at a wedding to stand just to the left and rear of the bride, to hold her bouquet during the ceremony and after the ceremony to remove the bride's face veil, should she wear any, or to otherwise adjust it and the train before the recessional is begun.

Miss Cameron Joins Alberta College Staff

Probably the most interesting announcement of the current week in musical circles is to the effect that Miss Jessie Cameron has joined the teaching staff of Alberta College North. Miss Cameron is another example of the old adage that success such as hers is not attained by sudden flight, and no doubt while many of her Edmonton friends "sleep" figuratively speaking, she went toiling upward.

In Paris Miss Cameron studied under the old master, Jean de Reszke. She studied French repertoire and dictation with Eugene Priad, leading coach of the Paris Opera and Opera Comique, also vocal and stage department with Madame Heston, of the Paris Opera, who is now the wife of the eminent composer, Xavier Leroux. In Italy Miss Cameron studied with Maestro Ballo, who was leading coach at La Scala, and later she studied with him in Paris. While in Paris Miss Cameron attracted the attention of the Paris correspondent of Musical America, who under date of May 20th, 1916, wrote: "Jessie Cameron, who has been studying three years in Paris, sang recently at the Students' Atelier Reunion and received sincere praise for her work. Miss Cameron is one of the most conscientious students I know, her voice is fine, her physique good, and she has plenty of temperament. Her diction is admirable, and with the perseverance she has shown nothing should prevent her from making a name for herself either as an operatic or a concert singer."

Since returning to Edmonton Miss Cameron has been very active in connection with various forms of concert work. Her recital in the First Presbyterian church remains fresh in the memory of those who were fortunate enough to hear her at that time, and she has shown a most unselfish interest in the many concerts that have been promoted during the season in aid of our patriotic fund. Only a few months ago she was identified herself with Alberta College North the young singers of the city will have an opportunity of studying with an exponent of the European centres. And this is as it should be. Only a few fortunate ones can study under the world's great masters. How fitting it is therefore that these fortunate ones should return to their native land and pass on the knowledge that they have acquired. Miss Cameron is to be congratulated upon the degree of success which we feel sure will increase as time goes on, and Alberta College North is to be congratulated upon their good fortune in being able to secure the services of such a promising young artist as Miss Cameron.

Bathe Internally And Keep Well!

Nature has mightily equipped us all, old and young, to resist disease—but she requires that we give her a chance.

We give her no chance if we permit the lower intestine to be more or less clogged with accumulated waste. Yet that is a universal condition today, as it proven by the number of laxative drugs that are consumed.

You can help Nature in Nature's most effective way by Internal Bathing, and in an easy, non-habit-forming way keep the intestine as sweet and clean as Nature demands it to be for perfect health and surer defence against disease. Over half a million keen, bright, healthy people testify to its result.

SPRING MEDICINE

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the Great Blood
Purifier, is the Best

Spring sickness comes in some degree to every man, woman and child in our climate.
It is that run-down condition of the system that results from impure, impurified, deoxygenated blood.
It is marked by loss of appetite and that tired feeling, and in many cases by some form of eruption.
The best way to treat spring sickness is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla.
This old reliable family medicine purifies, enriches and revitalizes the blood. It is an all-the-year-round alterative and tonic, and is absolutely the best spring medicine.
Get your blood in good condition at once—now. Delay may be dangerous. Ask your druggist for Hood's Sarsaparilla, and insist on having it, for nothing else can take its place.

Ottawa, Ont., May 3.—A clause in the new Railway Act, which is now being consolidated by the parliamentary committee, transferring from parliament to the railway commission the power to refuse or grant railway stock insues, to impose conditions, to specify the purpose for which the money is to be applied, and to generally fix the price and govern the whole transaction, was discussed today and rejected. The only member to vote for it was
W. F. McLean. The railway company's representatives objected to the proposal as a limitation of their financial powers.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

Sporting Facts and Fancies

Freddie Welsh had better look to his laurels. Bennie Leonard is going to get after him, that is sure as shootin'. The way Bennie cleaned up Ritchie Mitchell was certainly worth the price of admission. The lightweight New Yorker has big things in store for him.

Speaking of college pitchers, there's George Smith, formerly of Columbia University and now one of the bright young hopefuls of Jawn McGraw's Giants. Smith is certainly there with the pitching goods.

Charles Albert Bender, better known as "Chief" Bender, one of the most brilliant pitchers ever produced, is celebrating his birthday today. Of course, as everybody knows, the "Chief" has quit the game long since, but that is no reason why he should be forgotten. Bender was born in Brainard, Minn., on May 5, 1883, and was twenty years old when he was taken under the wing of Connie Mack, and the Athletics. He remained with the team for twelve years and was drawing a salary of $7,500 a year. In September, 1914, he led the American league pitchers, having won fifteen out of seventeen games, thirteen of which were straight victories. Toward the end of the season Bender broke with Mack and after a short and disastrous career with the Federal League, he retired.

It is good to know that the athletes in the United States now realize that the time might not be far off when they will be called to take part in a greater and more serious game. No broader or more encouraging step could have been taken than when the lawn tennis officials took a firm stand for the encouragement of competitive sport, but without the word "championship" being attached to it. If such competition interferes with military duties it will be stopped, but until that time the athletes are urged to keep themselves in shape and prepare themselves for the other game when their country calls. Throwing of the championship classes also should become effective in college sports and the word "winner" substituted instead. Too many colleges have lost their star men, and a title won under these conditions would not have the same standing. Speaking of college athletics, the time has come to remove the apparent seriousness which attaches itself to sports. Wild-eyed enthusiasm is all right in times of peace, but it can be used to better advantage in military training. We are not opposed to collegiate athletics at any time, but the time may come when the colleges will be depended upon to furnish officers for the army, and it is best to be prepared. Although this may seem strange, sports play no important part in the college course. A good football player never has received his diploma for his prowess on the gridiron, and the other athletic heroes are treated in the same way. Football, baseball, track and the other branches are indulged in when classes are over, and the object is to improve the students physically as well as mentally.

RED DEER IS HARD HIT BY CASUALTIES

Many of Prominent Young Men of City and District Killed

Red Deer, May 3.—The city and district of Red Deer has been hard hit in the casualty list and there is mourning in many homes in consequence.

Word came last week that W. H. Muldrew, son of Mrs. Muldrew of the Alberta Ladies' college, has been killed in action. Mr. Muldrew was one of Red Deer's most promising young men. He graduated from our high school, and was teaching at Penhold when he enlisted in the 89th. He was in a machine gun section with Pte. Cecil Carwell at Vimy Ridge, but it is not known whether they were struck with the same shell or not.

J. P. Snyder, Sidney Songhurst, and Walter Gowans, all of Hill End, were reported among the killed in action last week. These three young men were close chums, they joined up together and they were not divided in death. Pte. Gowans was a grandson of Sir James Gowans of Edinburgh, Scotland. They were all prominent young men in their district and highly respected.

Mrs. D. W. Wilson, sister of Pte. E. Skinner, received word a few days ago that he was killed on September 28th last. This was an official message. It was reported at one time that Pte. Skinner was still alive, but the report has now been proved to be without foundation.

A cable was received that Lance-Sergeant William Richards, eldest son of J. Richards, of Horn Hill, has made the supreme sacrifice. Willie, as he was known to all his friends, was one of the best and truest and bravest soldiers in the king's forces, and a thoroughly good Christian young man. Word came to his parents that Corp. Bert. Usherwood had been killed in action. Utterly fearless of danger, he has made the supreme sacrifice. He was a good soldier and brave lad, and had gained the respect of all by his high bearing and fearlessness.

Ex-Reeve A. Durand, of North Red Deer, received the news Thursday that his son, Donat Durand, had been killed in action. It was only a few weeks ago that Mr. Durand had another son wounded at the front.

Pte. A. E. Horne, son of Mr. Sam Horne of Hill End, is reported killed in action in Saturday's casualty list. He enlisted at Medicine Hat.

Mrs. H. Meeres received a wire on Sunday that her son Ray Meeres had been seriously wounded in the lung. He joined on with the 12th C. M. R. This is the second wire for Mrs. Meeres within a week as her husband, Lieut. H. Meeres, was wounded in the thigh.

Corp. W. Gillies, formerly on Red Deer's police force, who joined on with the 12th C. M. R., was reported wounded in a wire to his wife Monday. Wounds were in neck and arms and were reported as serious.

Ex-Mayor and Mrs. Carwell received word that their second son, Cecil, had gunshot wounds in the face, not serious. All of Mr. and Mrs. Carwell's three sons have been wounded at the front.

SATURDAY, MAY 5, 1917

Most householders in cities and towns will make gardens this year, not so much from the desire to beautify the home surroundings as to produce food. Naturally more attention will be given to the potato patch and the vegetable garden than to flower beds. This is a time when utilitarian purposes must have first place, and when the question of getting a living demands attention before that of making like more enjoyable.

Yet it is to be hoped the idea of beautification will not be altogether lost sight of in the pressing anxiety to grow things to eat. This question of making the home surroundings attractive is really a detail of a very large problem which confronts the people of Edmonton and of every other prairie city, a problem which must be attacked and solved if the hopes of making these cities what they are entitled to be are realized. We may as well candidly admit that most people who come to the prairies do not come here because they would rather live here than anywhere else, and that they do not stay here because they do not think they could find a great many attractions elsewhere which cannot be found here. They come here to make a living or to make money, stay for the same purpose, and when they have made money a regrettable large proportion of them "go to the coast" to live.

Edmonton has lost hundreds of citizens in this eastward migration during the last ten years, a large proportion of them citizens who had made money here and took it with them. But the greatest loss the city suffered was not the money, but the citizens. The saying is common that "this is a young man's age," and the idea is sometimes carried to the length of discounting the value of experience. That notion to the contrary, experience is still a valuable acquisition, to the individual, and hence to the community. A man who by diligence and foresight has built up a successful business, perhaps from small beginnings and with limited resources, is of more value to the community than the money he owns or the business enterprise he directs. The community gets—through the City Council or the School Board or other representative or charitable organization—the benefit of the training and experience he has learned in the only school where it can be learned—and the business interests of the city and its tributary district are promoted and consolidated by his matured judgment and influence, as well as by the operations he personally conducts.

How to stop this exodus of citizens who have "made good" financially and otherwise is a question of very great importance to this any other city similarly situated. Briefly, the solution is to surround life here with conditions which will make it attractive; with compensating advantages to offset the allurements which other and differently situated cities have to offer. The object to be attained is to make Edmonton a city whose citizens will not regard it simply as a stopping house on the road to a desirable place to live, but a place where they will want to live, to bring up their families and to be their permanent home town. The only way to do that is to work with the means nature has given us. We have neither mountains nor sea-coast, and we cannot guarantee a frostless winter or a summer of surpassing length. But one thing we have—a soil of most amazing fertility. Anything that can be grown in the more northerly temperate zone can be grown in Edmonton, and grown with a luxuriance that is scarcely equalled elsewhere. That is one of the resources with which nature has supplied us to make Edmonton not only a place where people can live until they get enough money to go somewhere else, but a place where they would rather live than elsewhere.

And the extent to which that resource can be utilized is limitless. Edmonton has had some beautiful gardens in past summers. But Edmonton never yet had as beautiful a garden as might be the common rule in the city if our people set their minds resolutely on using this resource to the utmost. Many lawns in the city are adorned with beautiful shrubs, and vines of various kinds give a home-like touch to many of our residences in the summer season; but why not beautiful shrubs and climbers in every lawn and about every porch? Flowers grow as readily for the poor man as for the rich, and a humble cottage with a well-planned garden of flowers often adds more to the attractiveness of a community than a mansion set about with a formal array of costly shrubbery. True, this matter of growing flowers and shrubs and trees is only one of a long list of things which can be done to help make the city a home like place, one where our citizens will want to stay and where other people will want to come to live. But it is one which can be done without "waiting till times pick up," done with little outlay of money or time, and in which everybody may have the satisfaction of helping directly and personally.

The General Stabb must be kept about as busy revising the location of the Hindenburg line as the market reporters are revising the location of the price of wheat.

The farmer must wonder what the Government means by calling on him to raise more wheat and save the Empire and at the same time imposing a penalty on him if he wants to buy implements with which to do it.

Berlin now threatens to stagger humanity with an offer to grant the world peace without demanding either territory or indemnity. Most criminals would compromise with the law on similar terms—when they see the gallows being built.

Canadian valor has turned the Huns out of Fresno, and won another mile of the hard-fought road to Douai. More valiant men never lived than the French and British troops with whom the Canadians are associated in the drive against the Hindenburg line. And the Canadians are worthy of the company they are keeping.

General Mewburn explains the motive behind the scheme to raise a standing army. It is hoped that after a man has given up his job and left home to go into camp in Canada for a while he will be more willing to consider the proposal of enlisting for overseas service. That pretty well destroys the hope aroused when Sir Sam Hughes was retired, that hereafter recruiting would be carried on in an open and above-board way, and that men would be asked to enlist with a plain knowledge of what they were wanted for. The authorities, it seems, still cling to the idea that the only way to get recruits for overseas service is to inveigle them into the ranks by false pretences. Naturally, they are not getting recruits. Men do not like to be trifled with in a matter of this kind.

In repealing the duty on wheat the Dominion Government expressed the opinion that prices

THE BLESSING OF A HEALTHY BODY

Has Not Had An Hour's Sickness Since Taking "FRUIT-A-LIVES."

MR. MARRIOTT.
73 Lees Ave., Ottawa, Ont.,
August 9th, 1915.

"I think it my duty to tell you what 'Fruit-a-lives' has done for me. Three years ago, I began to feel rundown and tired, and suffered very much from Liver and Kidney Trouble. Having read of 'Fruit-a-lives,' I thought I would try them. The result was surprising. During the 3½ years past, I have taken them regularly and would not change for anything. I have not had an hour's sickness since I commenced using 'Fruit-a-lives,' and I know now what I haven't known for a good many years—that is, the blessing of a healthy body and clear thinking brain."

were being manipulated to the disadvantage of the Canadian farmers—and were probably right. But what do the Ministers think is being done to wheat prices now, and upon whom do they expect the consequences to fall but on the Canadian consumers? The meteoric advance in wheat prices is not caused by any corresponding increase in the consumption of flour. Dealing in wheat is not now a business based on the relations between present supply and demand, but a gamble based on the prospective relationship between future supply and demand. And, as in every other orgy of speculation in a necessity of life, the ultimate consequences will fall upon the public. It was right that the farmer should be protected against the artificial depression of the price of wheat. It is equally the duty of the Government now to protect the consumer against the artificial increase in the price of flour.

News of the District

WETASKIWIN.

Bulletin Correspondence.

The Railroad Men's ball, the outstanding social event of many seasons, was held on the evening of May 1st, in Angus hall, and was attended by many from Camrose, Lacombe, Ponoka, Edmonton and other railroad points, and by the elite of Wetaskiwin and the surrounding district. The boys had carried out a unique scheme of decoration, indicative of their calling, including dance programs on train order blanks; picks, shovels and brake-wheels, enameled in aluminum and arranged as wall decorations; groups of signal lanterns, with their colored lights gleaming along the wall; and some 50 flags of the Empire and allied nations arranged on ceiling, gallery and walls. A large headlight did duty for the moonlight dances and across the crescent and star through which its light filtered floated clouds of many colors. Refreshments were served in a C.P.R. dining car, arranged at the rear of the hall. Lynch's orchestra furnished the music and the committee in charge of the dance were unfailing in attention to all guests. The proceeds which were for Red Cross work netted $158.50.

Bulletin Correspondence.

Seeding operations are in full swing in this district. Alexander Bros. seeded 25 acres last week, which was about the first sown, but is two weeks later than the earliest of last year. Consequently the wheat acreage will not be as large as it otherwise would have been.

Mr. Stainton, the student in charge of the Methodist church here last summer, returned from college last week to resume his work, and will remain until June at least.

The funeral service of the late Mrs. Hanson was held in the Presbyterian church on April 24th, and was largely attended.

The blacksmith shop has been reopened, and is in charge of Mr. Butler, of Camrose. He is greatly welcomed by the community. Mr. Butler, who is an efficient workman, is doing a rushing business.

Meie Parker has leased a half section in the Onoway district and he and family moved there recently, driving his stock across country, and shipping his effects. Before leaving, a farewell social was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Parker, in the Methodist church.

Manager Benson makes an important announcement this week in connection with the summer policy of the Empire theatre that will prove somewhat of an innovation for that playhouse, which has seen so many different kinds of attractions during the last eight years.

On May 14 Skovgaard, the famous Danish violinist, will appear at the Empire for a concert. Skovgaard has been heard here before to large and appreciative audiences, and there is little doubt but that on his next visit he will prove the same box office magnet among local music lovers as before.

On May 16 and 18, two days only, Frank Speight, "The Man Who Makes Dickens Live," and unquestionably the most famous impersonator of Dickensian characters on either side of the Atlantic will appear at the Empire in a series of impersonations, his characters being selected at ran-

BERNHARDT AT
THE MAJESTYGreatest Tragedienne Appears in Bluebird Photo-Play,
"Jeanne Dore"

Students of the drama, the ordinary devotees of the theatre, or anybody who thinks beyond the ordinary routine of existence will have cause to be glad that the artistic achievements of the divine Sarah Bernhardt have been preserved for posterity through the moving picture camera. Especially at this time, when the greatest tragedienne the world has ever known, the artist who for half a century has crowned the world's greatest theatres with worshipping multitudes eager to witness her sublime portrayals, is lying in a Philadelphia hospital hovering between life and death, it is fortunate that Manager Jzwelro of the Majesty has secured the rights for the great five act film, "Jeanne Dore," the play which was her last big stage success. She will be at the Majesty theatre the last four days of next week and the regular prices will prevail for all performances.

Although Bernhardt still lives, it is just as well to speak of her as departed from the drama; for her physical disabilities have terminated her stage activities, even should she recover from this last illness which her physicians have pronounced fatal.

With an artificial limb substituted

for the member severed by the surgeon, even so great an actress as Bernhardt cannot be expected to maintain the illusion of physical completeness that is wholly essential to good acting.

The cleverness of the photoplay producer very readily accomplishes what nature itself cannot—for nature is nothing more—or less than natural and photographic, nothing less than artifice. Thus it happens that in the Bluebird masterpiece, "Jeanne Dore," which Mme. Bernhardt will present at the Majesty the last four days of next week,

FAMOUS DANCER
HEADLINER OF
PANTAGES BILLMlle. Bianca Shares Honors With
"Honeymoon Isle" on Variety Program

Mlle. Bianca, for seven years premiere danseuse of the Metropolitan Opera company, New York, will headline the bill at the Pantages next week with her elaborate series of spectacular dances, with appropriate settings for each, in the presentation of which she is supported by M. Korsakoff and Wilhelmina Haglund. Mlle. Bianca will present a series of four numbers, three of which are in two parts each, each presented with special costumes, scenery and effects. Mlle. Bianca's work is apt to be a revelation to lovers of the artistic, for the dignity and conception, as well as the striking sensation of the dances themselves.

Then Ed. F. Reynard, the famous ventriloquist, is to make his first Edmonton visit on the Pantages circuit with a new act. This time he shows his ever funny rube character as a judge in a "courtroom" scene with half a dozen other funny character dummies. The novelty of the act is the introduction of a dancing specialty by Miss Katherine McConnell.

Alberto is a xylophone artist, dancing in an intricate and difficult soft shoe dance while playing.

Dorothy Vaughan, "cheerful singer of cheerful songs," will be found to quite live up to her title in every way, and Will Morrissey will contribute the surprise act of the bill.

"Honeymoon Isle," a pretty and fetching music and girl number, presented by a big cast, headed by four well-known vaudeville performers, is an outstanding feature of the program.

CLUNÉ FILM
WILL RETURN
TO EDMONTON"The Eyes of the World" Comes To Empire Theatre May
10, 11 and 12

California's wondrous scenic grandeur looms large in the newest multiple-reel motion picture masterpiece, "The Eyes of the World," which returns to the Empire theatre for three nights, May 10, 11, and 12, with Saturday matinee, and the production takes on special distinction by bringing to the fore two of the greatest men in America in their special lines of endeavor. These are Harold Bell Wright, author of this and several other famous stories, and W. H. Clune, the film magnate, who was largely responsible for "The Clansman" ("The Birth of a Nation") and was sole producer of the cinema wonder, "Ramona."

Wright's wonderful story of love and adventure in San Bernardino and Riverside counties of California, which has had a sale of over a million copies—the largest sale in fact of any story ever printed in America—has been done into a magnificent multiple-reel photodrama, with the active assistance of the author himself. Mr. Wright greatly amplified the romance for Mr. Clune, and on his part Clune lavished a fortune in money and spent six months' time in turning out a product worthy of its subject.

Readers of "The Eyes of the World" do not need to be assured that it is replete with the material for a charming and thrilling photoplay. Photographically the achievement is very beautiful. An elaborate musical score, which will be played by a specially augmented orchestra, has been composed and arranged for the production by J. C. Nurnberger, a musician of international note.

GEO. M. COHAN TO MAKE INITIAL
BOW AT MONARCH NEXT WEEK

In keeping with the progressive policy of his theatre, Manager Allen of the Monarch has secured George M. Cohan's first photoplay released by Artercraft Pictures, "Broadway Jones," which will be shown at the Monarch all next week, assisted by an orchestral score which is the last word in musical accompaniments for a motion picture.

Ever since the early days of the motion picture, George M. Cohan has been approached by various big motion picture interests with flattering offers but it was not until a few months ago that he finally decided to branch out into this field. At the head of his own company he commenced activities in the motion picture art with the same enthusiasm and energy that has marked his great success in theatricals for many years. Selecting "Broadway Jones," conceded to be his biggest stage hit and which was written and produced by himself, he makes his bow as a screen star and that the film version of his play will even score a greater success than the original play is freely predicted.

"It was not because I have underestimated the potency of the motion picture not its great popularity and the fact that it has come to stay and exert a great influence on the life of the people that kept me from the camera heretofore," said the popular actor-author-producer recently. "In connection with his tardy decision in becoming connected with the motion picture field, 'I have been so very busy with my theatrical affairs that I never felt I had the time to devote to it which I knew was quite necessary in order to make the big success it demands. Now that I am in the game, I am giving it my very best efforts, having studied it from every angle.'

Few American writers for the stage have caught the real spirit of what the people want better than Mr. Cohan and "Broadway Jones" is particularly a happy choice as his initial screen vehicle. The subject gives him an opportunity to shine in the very kind of thing he can do better, perhaps, than anyone else of today, namely to present a swiftly moving, interesting and dramatic story about a topic universally known.

"The Matrimaniac"—Triangle.
"The Sin Ye Do"—Triangle.
"Dare Devil Kate"—William Fox.

The Empress theatre announces for next week three more programs filled with features of an exceptional character, starting on Monday with the return of the highest favorite on the screen today, Douglas Fairbanks, in "The Matrimaniac." Fairbanks' two most recent films were "Manhattan Madness" and "American Aristocracy" in which his peculiar style of acting sent the audiences away declaring they were the best films they ever saw. In "The Matrimaniac" it is asserted that the agile and athletic young man outdoes all his previous feats of leaping, swinging, climbing and bounding; also it is announced that he adds to his past program by riding the rods of a trolley coach and walking from a roof to a telegraph pole along the wires. The story is founded upon the efforts of a young man to get a quickie in order to marry the girl who is eager to become his wife. The termination of his efforts, when he walks the wires between telegraph poles, is a scene performed, is but one interesting and thrilling moment among many in the five spinning reels. The feature is on the screen for three days. Coming on Thursday only is that old favorite of both screen and stage, Frank Keenan, whose previous performances here have won him hundreds of warm friends. It is entitled "The Sin Ye Do," and is said by the trade papers to be one of the strongest and best features that have come from the line studio. The Motion Picture News had this to say of the film: "Based on a story by John Lynch, the scenario done by J. G. Hawkes rules as unique to the nth degree and reduces nothing to the minimum. There is conflict of characters, conflict of passions—un awakening in a man who thought he knew the world." On Friday and Saturday Virginia Pearson is seen again in a William Fox film, "Dare Devil Kate," wherein a woman holds the balance in a fight between men of the east and the west. It is a real woman's story. "Kate" is a woman of brains plus strength, and she has all the craft and cleverness which years of experience as a saloon keeper have given her.

BEST PRESS AGENT FOR AMERICAN FLAG NEW FILM COMEDIAN

George M. Cohan's love for the American flag, as set forth in numerous songs and plays, is not professional. Even today he possesses all the patriotism of a small boy and is intensely American in his sentiments. In addition to his many other achievements, George M. is often referred to as "the best press agent for the American flag" the country has ever known. Not satisfied with being the most popular actor-author-producer connected with the stage, he has invaded the field of motion pictures. When Mr. Cohan announced several years ago "Broadway Jones," a play minus his singing and dancing, yes, even without an American flag, various doubtful ones wondered if it would go over with the public. Some of the bolder acquaintances approached him on the matter, but George M. had decided to put his best efforts into something different. The result is a matter of theatrical history and "Broadway Jones" was conceded by every New York critic the biggest hit of the season. And now, with this same determination and energy he has finally entered the motion picture fold and that he has already added thousands of new admirers to his immense following can easily be understood. Ever since Mr. Cohan started his screen production of "Broadway Jones," no one along the Great White Way in New York has proved a more constant motion picture fan. Mary Pickford is George M.'s favorite actor. Perhaps the fact that she gave him his first lessons in the motion picture art has something to do with it.

MAJESTY

"Mutiny"—Bluebird.
"Jeanne Dore"—Bluebird.

Next week's program at the Majesty is indeed a remarkable one, with two big "headliner" attractions in addition to the varied general program which is shown every day and is changed three times each week. On Monday and Tuesday, there will be seen another of the beautiful Lynn Reynolds' productions and it is entitled "Mutiny." Reynolds produced "God's Crucible" and "The End of the Rainbow" recently shown here. "Mutiny" ran for a full week in the Herald Square Theatre, New York, which is the highest form of recommendation. The last four days of the week Miss Sarah Bernhardt, the great tragedienne, is appearing in the screen production of the play in which she was acting when she had to undergo the operation of amputation. The picture was made when she had just learned to use her artificial limb, and was produced for the established purpose of preserving her art for the future.

QUEBEC IS QUITE MODERN.

Quebec, May 4.—Quebec's mayor is at loggerheads with the city council. He has vetoed the city budget, asserting that for at least four years the finances of Quebec have been unwisely handled and that the city will face a deficit of close to a half million dollars next June.

PERUVIAN INDIANS RISE.

Lima, Peru, May 4.—An Indian uprising is in progress in the San Diaz region, the gold mining district near the Bolivian border. New York owners of estates and employees have been killed.

FOURTH ANNIVERSARY TO BE CELEBRATED AT THE PANTAGES

Next week marks the fourth anniversary of the local Pantages theatre, it having been opened to the public on May 12, 1912. As a special attraction, Manager Calvert announces a surprise or two for his patrons during the week, which will probably take the form of the biggest Clown Night of the season. The Pantages will soon take on new dress and look as good as new for Fourth Anniversary Week. A new stage has been built and holes are already being bored into it by acrobats for their apparatus. In a few days the auditorium of the theatre will be freshened with new paint and the draperies throughout will be so newly recognizable after May 11th.

Labor Gossip

The meeting of the Trades and Labor council on Monday night promises to be more than usually interesting. The election committee will submit a report on the matter of selecting labor, and it is more than probable that this will mean the calling together of the labor organizations with the idea of selecting a candidate to represent labor interests in the provincial legislature. The subject has been taken up pretty actively in other parts of the province, and it is no exaggeration to say that the idea of having direct representation is one that appeals very much to the labor party in the city. There will also be a report by the legislative committee on the subject of holding a mass meeting to consider the provisions and working of the factory act.

The meetings of the Retail Clerks association are progressing very satisfactorily and the membership is increasing. The question of early closing is a matter that is being taken up very warmly by the association. At the meeting on Thursday night a resolution touching on the question was received from the Anglican Society, this having been adopted at a recent meeting. This resolution read: "That this meeting of the Anglican Society calls upon every employer of labor in the city to do his or her utmost by mutual agreement to secure the closing of all stores and business houses at 6 o'clock at the latest every night of the week, Saturday most especially." The resolution also called upon all purchasers to help bring about shorter hours in the stores by doing their shopping early in the day.

The Plumbers' and Steamfitters local, which has just decided to "come in with the crowd," held its first meeting at the Trades and Labor hall at 101st street on Wednesday night.

The Labor Gazette for April, in alluding to local conditions, says: "At Edmonton the iron foundry had 48 men employed and there was a demand for good machinists. Labor was well employed at the packing house of the Swift Canadian company, there being some 470 persons employed. The Great Western Garment company continued active with a demand for help. Newspaper printing continued active, job printing was only fair. There was a very active demand for farm labor, the provincial Bureau of Agriculture reported distributing some 400 men for the northern part of the province."

They are a gentle laxative—mild but thorough in action—and are guaranteed by a government analyst to be absolutely free from opiates and other injurious drugs. Concerning them Mrs. Auguste, St. Brice, Sask., writes: "Enclosed find twenty-five cents for another box of Baby's Own Tablets. I find them the very best medicine a mother can give her little ones." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers, or by mail, at 25 cents a box, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Speak Of Them In The Highest Terms

Why Mr. and Mrs. West Recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills

They Cured Mr. West's Lumbago and Made Mrs. West Feel Like a New Person—They Are the Best Tonic.

St. James, Man., May 4 (Special).—That Dodd's Kidney Pills are living up to their great reputation in the West is twice proved by Mr. and Mrs. G. West, well known and highly respected residents of this place. Let Mrs. West tell the story of what the great Canadian kidney remedy has done for her husband and herself.

"My husband suffered from attacks of lumbago," she states, "and the doctor did him no good, but I can truthfully say that since using Dodd's Kidney Pills he is entirely free from lumbago."

"I myself took six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and am just like a new person. I have gained 10 pounds since using them and my friends compliment me on how well I look. I have recommended Dodd's Kidney Pills to some of my lady friends who were complaining of not feeling well, and they, like myself, speak highly of them."

Dodd's Kidney Pills cure the kidneys. Cured Kidneys make pure blood. That is why Dodd's Kidney Pills are the best tonic.

It's Easy to Peel Off All Your Freckles

The contrast between the freckles and the clear skin usually is so great that no bleach can be more than partially successful in obliterating the disfigurement. One far better way is to peel them off. It is literally peeled off the freckles. Get an ounce of it at the nearest drug store and tonight spread on enough to completely cover your face; remove in the morning with warm water. Repeat daily until every freckle has disappeared.

Rough, bumpy, pimply skin, also common at this season, may be entirely got rid of by this same method, without discomfort or inconvenience. The effort is decidedly worth while, the new complexion obtained being so clear, smooth and youthful.

If bothered with wrinkles or crowfeet, bathe the face in a lotion made by dissolving an ounce of powdered azolette in a half-pint of which base. This is the most effective and quickest wrinkle treatment known. It is perfectly harmless.

Charged with false pretences on two counts, W. Garth, James Burns and F. Schwalbe appeared at the city police court on Friday morning and were remanded until May 11th.

Also, he was led to execute a bill of sale of certain cattle, horses, pigs, lumber and farm machinery to the said Jack Anderson.

Studebaker

Established 1899

GENUINE LEATHER

Studebaker bodies are upholstered with genuine leather, and it is of high grade quality—the same that you find on cars costing from $500.00 to $1000.00 more than Studebaker cars.

It is soft, pliable, durable, fast-colored, and it will not work off, scale, crumble or check. We describe this leather to you because it shows the quality of material that Studebaker uses in the construction of its car.

Expense has not been spared to cheapen the car in any particular. It is distinctly a high-grade, fine automobile. Your comfort, your safety, your pride, have all been considered in the design and construction of both the FOUR and SIX.

It costs only a little more to obtain the quality that you find in Studebaker cars, and this quality is the thing that gives you real economy. "It is better to pay a little bit more and get the BEST."

Was Troubled With Shortness of Breath

When the heart becomes affected, there ensues a feeling of a choking sensation, a shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensation, dizziness, and a weak, sinking, all-gone feeling of oppression and anxiety.

The nerves become unstrung, you dread to be alone, have a horror of society, cannot stand least noise and are generally fatigued.

On the first sign of the heart becoming weakened of the nerves unstrung, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills should be taken. They are just what you require at this time. They regulate and stimulate the heart, and strengthen and restore the whole nerve system.

Mrs. C. M. Cormier, Buctouche, N.B., writes: "Since two years ago I was troubled with a shortness of breath, and sometimes I could hardly breathe. I went to see several doctors, and they said it was from my heart and nerves, but they did not seem to do me any good. One day I got one of your B.B.B. Almanacs and read of a case similar to mine.

"I bought a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and after taking it I noticed such a change that I kept on taking them until I had used four more boxes, when I was cured."

The Iron Trail

AN ALASKAN ROMANCE.

By REX BEACH

(Author of "The Spoilers," "The Net," "The Silver Horde," Etc.)

Natalie picked up the discarded clothing, which crackled stiffly under her touch and parted from the bare boards with a tearing sound.

"Frozen! The idea!" said she.

Eliza poked among the other garments which hung against the wall and found them also rigid. The nail-heads behind them were coated with ice. Turning to the table with its litter of papers and the various unclassified accumulation of a bachelor's house she said:

"I suppose we'll have to leave this at it."

"Just leave everything. I'll get a man to clean up while you take pictures of the bridge." As Natalie began preparing for action he queried, in surprise, "Don't you like my little home?"

"It's awful," the bride answered, feelingly.

"A perfect bear's den," Eliza agreed. "It will take us all day."

"It's just the way I like it," he told them; but they regularly banished him and locked the door in his face.

"Hey! I don't want my things all muddled up," he called, pounding for readmittance. "I know right where everything is, and—The door opened, out came an armful of papers, a shower of burnt matches, and a litter of trash from his work-table. He groaned. Eliza showed her countenance for a moment to say:

"Now, run away, little boy. You're going to have your face washed, no matter how you cry. When we've finished in here we'll attend to you."

The door slammed once more, and he went away shaking his head.

At lunch-time they abruptly admitted him, and, although they protested they were not half through, he was naively astonished at the change they had brought to pass. For the first time in many days the place was thoroughly warm and dry. It likewise displayed an orderliness and comfort to which it had been a stranger.

From some obscure source the girls had gathered pictures for the bare walls; they had hung figured curtains at the windows; there were fresh white covers for bed, bureau, and washstand. His clothes had been rearranged, and posted in conspicuous places were written directions telling him of their whereabouts. One of the cards bore these words: "Your script. Take one in cup of hot brandy and water before retiring." Beneath was a bottle and a box of bouillon tablets. A shining tea-kettle was humming on the stove.

"This is splendid," he agreed, when they had completed a tour of inspection. "But where are my blue-prints?"

"In the drafting-room, where they belong. This room is for rest and sleep. We want to see it in this condition when we come back."

"Where did you find the fur rug?"

He indicated a thick bearskin beside the bed.

"We stole it from Mr. Parker," they confessed, shamelessly. "He had two."

Eliza continued complacently: "We

Had Severe Cold

PAIN IN CHEST

SPASMODIC COUGHING.

Many people when they contract a cold do not pay any attention to it, thinking perhaps it will pass away in a day or two. This is a mistake for before they know it, it has settled on the lungs.

Too much stress cannot be laid on the fact that on the first sign of a cough or cold it must be gotten rid of immediately, otherwise it may cause years of suffering from some serious lung trouble.

Mr. A. George, 20 Blevin's Place, Toronto, Ont., writes: "Having greatly benefited from your remedy, Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, I take the liberty to write you a few words about the effect of that wonderful syrup. Two years ago I caught a severe cold followed by a spasmodic cough and pain in my chest. I was treated by many doctors but without any benefit, and also took many proprietary medicines which all failed to cure. One of my friends recommended Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and using three bottles I was completely cured. I recommend it to anyone as a God-sent remedy."

Dr. Wood's is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark, price 25c. and 50c.

Today We Celebrate

EUGENIE, THE OLDEST LIVING EMPRESS.

Romance has spun its web about kings and queens for thousands of years, but never has a more fantastic tale been written than that which deals with the life of the former Empress Eugenie of France, who today celebrates her 91st birthday. Today this heroic woman is living in comparative obscurity and in marked contrast to the time when she was the proud consort of the ill-fated Louis Napoleon, last Emperor of the French. This monarch chose her for his wife in the winter of 1853, before he had become emperor. The ceremony which united them was the most splendid which Paris had seen since the days of the first Napoleon. Eugenie had been used to a gay life, and the palace of Fontainebleau, the Tuilleries and other places, where she had lived with laughter and revelry from the moment the beautiful young empress took her seat beside that of her imperial husband. As she grew older Eugenie settled down, and in her mature years became the warm friend of Queen Victoria of England. The happy days of the French court continued until the late summer of 1870, when war between France and Prussia was declared. It is said by some that Eugenie was partly responsible for the failure of the French arms during that disastrous war for France. With defeat, therefore, in Paris, which attacked the palace, demanding the life of the empress. Eugenie escaped by a rear door, assisted by Dr. Evans, her American dentist, who smuggled her out of France and into England. The emperor later joined her, and they lived quietly together at Chislehurst with their son, Eugene Napoleon, born in 1858. The young man was sent to a British military academy, and had a brilliant career before him when he fell in love with a baker's daughter named Watkins. She bore him a son who is living to this day. The old empress, enraged at her son's escapade, compelled him to join a British expedition to Zulu land. During this war the young prince was treacherously killed by a native. Eugenie went to Africa to bring back the body of her beloved son, whom she buried at Chislehurst. While she makes her home in the south of France today, she spends part of every year in England, near the tomb of her loved ones. Louis Napoleon died in 1873, and also lies buried at Chislehurst.

Today We Celebrate

EUGENIE, THE OLDEST LIVING EMPRESS.

Romance has spun its web about kings and queens for thousands of years, but never has a more fantastic tale been written than that which deals with the life of the former Empress Eugenie of France, who today celebrates her 91st birthday. Today this heroic woman is living in comparative obscurity and in marked contrast to the time when she was the proud consort of the ill-fated Louis Napoleon, last Emperor of the French. This monarch chose her for his wife in the winter of 1853, before he had become emperor. The ceremony which united them was the most splendid which Paris had seen since the days of the first Napoleon. Eugenie had been used to a gay life, and the palace of Fontainebleau, the Tuilleries and other places, where she had lived with laughter and revelry from the moment the beautiful young empress took her seat beside that of her imperial husband. As she grew older Eugenie settled down, and in her mature years became the warm friend of Queen Victoria of England. The happy days of the French court continued until the late summer of 1870, when war between France and Prussia was declared. It is said by some that Eugenie was partly responsible for the failure of the French arms during that disastrous war for France. With defeat, therefore, in Paris, which attacked the palace, demanding the life of the empress. Eugenie escaped by a rear door, assisted by Dr. Evans, her American dentist, who smuggled her out of France and into England. The emperor later joined her, and they lived quietly together at Chislehurst with their son, Eugene Napoleon, born in 1858. The young man was sent to a British military academy, and had a brilliant career before him when he fell in love with a baker's daughter named Watkins. She bore him a son who is living to this day. The old empress, enraged at her son's escapade, compelled him to join a British expedition to Zulu land. During this war the young prince was treacherously killed by a native. Eugenie went to Africa to bring back the body of her beloved son, whom she buried at Chislehurst. While she makes her home in the south of France today, she spends part of every year in England, near the tomb of her loved ones. Louis Napoleon died in 1873, and also lies buried at Chislehurst.
